

Counseling Parents About Their Children
Withhold Not Correction (Bruce Ray)
The Institute for Biblical Counseling & Discipleship
December 16, 2006

1. Make sure you have the right tools for the job
 - A.
 - B.
2. Start at the right starting-point
3. Explain the biblical necessity for correction
4. Clarify the biblical motives for correction
5. Establish the authority of God in family discipline
6. Talk to your Father
7. Use the rod in love, but use it
8. Add verbal instruction
9. Make discipline proportionate to the offense
10. Be reasonable in what you expect
11. Be consistent and don't give up
12. Work together with your spouse as your partner in management
13. Bring your kids with you to church
14. Be real with God and your kids